What is the Difference between All Souls Day and All Saints' Day?

All Saints' Day, November 1, is classified as a Holy Day of Obligation. It is a day the Church celebrates each individual in Heaven that are known and unknown saints.

All Saints' Day Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank you for the many and wonderful saints that followed Jesus down through the ages. Help us to follow their good examples and to remember what a blessing it is to be in the same family of faith. We ask this in Jesus' name – Amen

All Souls' Day, November 2, is a commemoration of all the faithful departed. Although a not a day of obligation, it is still a beautiful celebration to pray for holy souls awaiting Heaven.

All Souls' Day Prayer: Eternal Father, I offer You the most precious blood of thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, for those in my own home, and in my family. Amen
